NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

In the matter of the application for registration of the trademark OLD YALE BREWING CO. (the "Proposed Mark") filed by Artisans Ales Limited Partnership ("Applicant"), as shown in Application Serial No. 86/336817 published for opposition in the Official Gazette of December 8, 2015.

Yale University ("Opposer"), a not-for-profit corporation established by charter with the colony and state of Connecticut, with an address at 105 Wall Street, New Haven, Connecticut, 06520 believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in said Application Serial No. 86/336817 and hereby opposes the same:

As grounds for opposition it is alleged that:

1. Opposer has continuously used the YALE and YALE UNIVERSITY marks for almost 300 years.
2. Opposer is a world-renowned institution of higher learning, founded in 1701, making it one of the oldest educational institutions in the United States.
3. Since at least as early as 1718 Opposer, using the name and trademark YALE and YALE UNIVERSITY, has continuously engaged in providing all types and manner of educational services at the college and graduate school levels.

4. Opposer has achieved widespread fame and respect as one of the preeminent educational institutions in the U.S. and the world.
5. Opposer is the owner of Incontestable U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3224341 issued April 3, 2007 for the mark YALE CABARET as used to identify, among other things, restaurant services. A printout from the TDSR database is attached.
6. Opposer is the owner of Incontestable U.S. Trademark Registration No. 2682188 issued February 4, 2003 for the mark YALE covering, among other things, “beverage glassware, mugs, plastic cups.” A printout from the TDSR database is attached.
7. Applicant has filed an intent to use application for the mark OLD YALE BREWING CO. for “beer” in Class 32 and for “operation of a brewery” in Class 40.
8. Applicant has not used the Proposed Mark in commerce in the United States.
9. Applicant did not use its Proposed Mark in commerce in the United States prior to March 11, 2014.
10. Applicant has appropriated the whole of Opposer’s mark YALE to form the focal point of the Proposed Mark. Without YALE, Applicant’s mark would be purely descriptive and would simply be composed of the words OLD and BREWING CO. YALE is the most prominent and only distinctive component of the Proposed Mark. It stands to reason that consumers who are familiar with Opposer and its registered marks would assume that the Proposed Mark is associated with Opposer or confuse Opposer as the source of the Proposed Mark.

11. Applicant's use of OLD in conjunction with YALE is intended to trade-off of the goodwill in Opposer's mark developed by Opposer over three centuries.
12. The goods for which Applicant seeks to register the mark OLD YALE BREWING CO. are likely to be encountered by the same class of purchasers who are familiar with Opposer's YALE and YALE UNIVERSITY marks.
13. Since long prior to the filing date of the application herein opposed, Opposer has used the names and marks YALE CATERING and YALE HOSPITALITY in connection with catering and hospitality services, which include the preparation and serving of food and beverages, including alcoholic beverages.
14. Similarly, since long prior to the filing date of the application herein opposed, Opposer has used the name and mark YALE CABARET in connection with restaurant services, which includes offering an extensive beer and wine list.
15. The fact that Opposer has used the name and mark YALE as a part of the mark YALE CABARET in connection with restaurant services, which includes offering an extensive beer and wine list, and the fact that the Proposed Mark incorporates the name and mark OLD YALE as a part of a mark for brewery services and beer, will lead consumers to mistakenly believe that the goods and services offered under the Proposed mark emanate from or are affiliated with or licensed by the Opposer.
16. Opposer's goods, including, among others, pub glasses, microbrew glasses, wine glasses, shot glasses, bearing the YALE mark have been and continue to be sold by Opposer and its authorized licensees through various retail outlets, by mail order and on the Internet.

17. It is not uncommon for restaurants to offer house-branded merchandise, including alcoholic beverages. For purposes of a likelihood of confusion determination, food-related services such as restaurant and catering services may be found related to beverage products where the evidence shows that such goods and services may be provided under the same or similar marks.
18. Thus, because Opposer sells goods and services that would be related to or complimentary with Applicant's proposed goods and services, consumers will likely confuse Opposer as the source of Applicant's proposed goods and services believing they emanate from Opposer.
19. Furthermore, there is an enhanced likelihood that consumers will presume a connection between Applicant's proposed goods and services and Opposer. The beverages supplied under the Proposed Mark could be presumed to drinks "licensed" by Opposer. Such drinks may be offered in commerce to the many persons who interact every day with Yale University. Further, they could be targeted to Yale University alumni and to Yale University's fans. The goods further could be sold on or adjacent to Yale University's campus. The services likewise could be offered adjacent to or near Yale University's campus. It must therefore be presumed that the market and the channels of trade through which Applicant's applied for goods and services will travel are identical to those that are currently used by Opposer and that have been used by Opposer since long prior to any date to which Applicant might be entitled.

20. The goods for which Applicant seeks to register the Proposed Mark are closely related to or complimentary with the various products on and in connection with which the Opposer has used and makes use of its names and marks YALE and YALE UNIVERSITY.
21. Opposer's fame and Opposer's excellent and well-known reputation are such that a connection with Opposer and Opposer's goods and services and/or a license from Opposer to use the YALE trademark is likely to be presumed when Applicant's mark sought to be registered is used in connection with Applicant's proposed goods and services.
22. Because Applicant's mark incorporates the entirety of Opposer's mark and covers the same or highly related goods and services, consumers are likely to mistakenly believe that Applicant's OLD YALE BREWING CO. goods and services emanate from or are sponsored by, licensed by, or otherwise affiliated with Opposer, Yale University.
23. Opposer has endeavored to strictly control how and when the YALE name and mark is associated with alcoholic beverages.
24. Opposer's license agreements specifically prohibit use of the YALE name and mark in connection with distribution channels whose primary business is the sale of tobacco, alcohol, weapons, political paraphernalia, or any sex-related products.
25. Opposer prohibits underage drinking on its campuses as evidenced by the fact that any drinking under the legal age of 21 is in violation of Yale's Undergraduate Regulations.

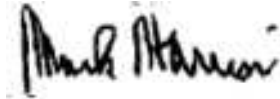

26. Applicant's use and registration of Opposer's name and mark YALE as a part of a trademark to be used in connection with "beer" and a "brewery" will harm Opposer and cause damage and tarnishment to Opposer's reputation and will undermine Opposer's specific policies governing the use of its trademarks in that it will cause Opposer's name and mark to be associated with alcoholic beverages and the brewing of alcoholic beverages.
27. If the Applicant were permitted to use and register its Proposed Mark for its goods and services as specified in its application, confusion among consumers resulting in damage and injury to Opposer and to Opposer's reputation would be caused by virtue of the similarity between Applicant's Proposed Mark and Opposer's trademarks. Any defect, objection or fault found with Applicant's goods and services would reflect upon, seriously injure the reputation, value and good will that Opposer has established under its trademarks.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that Application Serial No. 86/336817 be rejected, that no registration be issued thereon to Applicant, and that this opposition be sustained in favor of the Opposer.

This Notice of Opposition is submitted together with the statutory filing fee of $600.00 (Classes 32 and 40). Should any additional fee be required, please charge the same to our Account No. 22-0261 and notify the undersigned accordingly.

Opposer appoints Mark B. Harrison and Rebecca Liebowitz along with the law firm of Venable LLP, P.O. Box 34385, Washington, D.C. 20043-9998 to transact all business on its behalf in connection with this Opposition.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: April 6, 2016
